Golden horde was Mongol, and later and it became different Khanate, it has many nomadic tribes from central asia /Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Kyrgyzstan/ I'd like to believe you're larping or just living up to your flag

FYI there was no kazakhstan at that period of time, historically kazakhstan only became a country after soviet union's collapse, before that it was autonomous soviet republic that seperated from the Kyrgyzstan, so kazakh's should be grateful to their Russian masters for their existence

#37 Citizen_of_cringe_country
